CHRISTOPHER ‘GUS’ GREEN

Alumni ‘57 fourth generation

Gus Green is looking forward with an eye to progress as Grammar approaches 175 years of continuous operation. A dedicated Old Boy, his focus is blending experience with the perspectives of current students and their parents. He is passionate about and actively involved in the writing and preservation of history, heritages issues and environmental sustainability and believes in the generosity of our extended community. As a business man, he knows the advantages of investment in the bricks and mortar supporting our School infrastructure, but at the same time his core sentiment rests with our relationships, friendships and the life-long support we have for each other.

Help us improve our campus by investing in our Community Hub initiative.

We seek your support for this exciting project. Every gift makes a difference.

For one hundred and seventy years, our school has been making its unique and valuable contribution to independent education in northern Tasmania. Today, as we look ahead five short years towards our 175th anniversary, we're planning a major project to commemorate this remarkable milestone.

The Community Hub will be a warm and welcoming space for the school community to come together and enjoy in the present - and at the same time, link the traditions of our school's rich past with our bright future. Set in the heart of the school, the Community Hub will be a multi-use, light-filled, contemporary student learning space, incorporating Café 175 and The Space.

Café 175 will be an attractive and vibrant space for students, staff and visitors to meet and enjoy informal dining as well as host School functions and events.

The Space will be a dynamic facility to showcase historical assets from the DV Gunn Archives. Our school's story enlarges year by year, with significant memorabilia that resonates with individual identity and history.

The Board is now asking for your support to realise the next vision - the Launceston Church Grammar Community Hub, a vital initiative to celebrate another landmark in the history of Australia's longest continually-operating school.

The Community Hub, with its appealing and integrated spaces, will reconnect old and young members of the Grammar family.

The Crawford family – three generations of a Grammar family.
