Child protection notification form

To make an urgent notification about abuse or neglect to Child Protection Services, please ring 1300 737 639 at any time. Child Protection Services prefer to talk to a notifier in order to aid them in gathering information. However, if it is after hours and you are a mandatory reporter, an online notification can also be made below.

This electronic form is to be used for the purpose of notifying Child Protection Tasmania of concerns about a child's safety or wellbeing.

Should your concern require an URGENT response, you are advised to:

- call 1300 737 639 at any time, instead of submitting your concern electronically, OR
- call the above number and advise that an electronic notification has been submitted which requires urgent attention.

Providing an electronic notification using this form will require you to give your name and contact details (your details will remain confidential at all times). Should you wish to submit a notification without providing your name, you are advised to call 1300 737 639 during office hours (unless the matter is urgent).

For detailed information please refer to: Children, Young Persons and Their Families Act 1997 s13-16
