Privacy Policy

- The School collects personal information, including specific information about students and parents or guardians before and during the course of a student's enrolment at the School. The primary purpose of collecting this information is to enable the School to provide appropriate and effective schooling for your son/daughter.
- Some of the information we collect is to satisfy the School's legal obligations, particularly to enable the School to discharge its duty of care.
- Certain laws governing or relating to the operation of schools require that certain information is collected. This includes Public Health laws.
- Health information about students is sensitive information within the terms of the National Privacy Principles under the Privacy Act. We ask you to provide medical reports about students from time to time.
- If we do not obtain the information referred to above we may not be able to enrol or continue the enrolment of your son/daughter.
- The School may disclose personal and sensitive information to others for administrative and educational purposes. This includes to other schools, government departments, medical practitioners, and people providing services to the School, including specialist visiting teachers, sports coaches and volunteers.
- Personal information collected from students is regularly disclosed to their parents or guardians. On occasions information such as academic and sporting achievements, student activities (including photographs and video footage) and other information is published in School newsletters, magazines, on our website, digital networking spaces and through the media.
- Parents may seek access to personal information collected about themselves and their son/daughter by contacting the School. Students may also seek access to personal information about them. All requests must be made in writing addressed to the Headmaster. There may however be occasions when access is denied. Such occasions could include where there is unreasonable impact on the privacy of others, where access may result in a breach of the School's duty of care, or where a student has provided information in confidence.
- The School from time to time engages in fundraising activities. Information received from you may be used to make an appeal to you. It may also be disclosed to organisations that assist in the School's fundraising activities solely for that purpose. We will not disclose your personal information to third parties for their own marketing purposes without your consent.
- We may include your contact details in a class list and School directory. If you do not agree to this you must advise the Headmaster in writing.
- If you provide the School with the personal information of others, such as doctor or emergency contact, we encourage you to inform them that you are disclosing that information to the School and why. They can access that information if they wish.

Consent

These consents are ongoing. If you wish to withdraw consent, please do so in writing to the Headmaster, Launceston Church Grammar School, PO Box 136, Mowbray Heights 7248.

Consent to publications

Photographs of students and their work may be published to enable the student to share about the School community. Photographs and video footage on Websites and Digital Networking spaces may be available to the global community. Access to the School newsletter is password protected and hence this information is not available globally.

There are instances where photographs and video footage may be posted on the School Website and Digital Networking Sites. Students' safety is ensured by names not being linked to images or videos.

Conditions of Enrolment

1. The enrolment fee accompanying this application is non-refundable.
2. Fees are payable on a monthly basis and shall be those fixed from time to time by the School Board. Some fees will be used for capital purposes. Failure to pay fees when due may result in a student's attendance being suspended or enrolment terminated.
3. (a) The School has the right to charge interest on a monthly basis, at published bank overdraft rates on overdue accounts.
(b) The applicant shall be responsible for payment of any legal and collection costs incurred by the School for, and incidental to, recovery of overdue fees.
4. The School expects parents to comply with its requirements for the funding of maintenance and the upgrading of infrastructure as may be necessary from time to time. Participation in the School's Capital Works Programme is a condition of enrolment. Parents may provide a Capital Loan to the School to meet this obligation, or they may choose to make a voluntary gift to the School's Building Fund. (Please refer to the Schedule of Fees for detail).
5. Ten school weeks' notice of intention to remove a student from the School or change status between day and boarding must be given in writing to the Headmaster. Where less than 10 weeks' notice has been given, parents will be liable for the payment of one additional term's tuition fees (being one quarter of the annual tuition fee). This does not apply to Early Learning students who are covered by point 6 below.
6. For Early Learning students, 4 school week's notice of intention to remove a student from the School must be given in writing to the Headmaster. Where less than 4 week's notice has been given, parents will be liable for the payment of 4 weeks fees.
7. (a) In the event of a student being absent without prior notice for illness, or any other reason whatever, the School should be notified immediately.
(b) Parents are expected to ensure attendance of students throughout the school year. Leave of Absence is granted only in exceptional circumstances on written application to the Heads of Campus (Junior or Senior Campus).
8. The Headmaster may, if he considers he has adequate cause for doing so, forthwith suspend or terminate a student's enrolment.
9. Should a student's enrolment in any term be suspended or terminated by the School the fees payable shall be calculated to the end of the term in which such suspension or termination occurs.
10. Students shall comply with all requirements the School may make in respect of dress, general appearance, behaviour and participation in the School's programme of sports and activities.
11. At all times during any excursion the staff in charge shall have the same powers of control and guardianship as the parent/guardian would have if present, including the power to consent to medical, surgical or hospital treatment and the parent/guardian will be responsible for any expenses so incurred for or on behalf of the student.
12. The School will not be responsible for the loss of or damage to clothes and effects of students no matter how caused. (It is suggested that parents ensure that their own insurance policy provides adequate cover.)
13. The parent will be responsible for all breakages and damage to School property caused by a student. (The cost of repairs or replacement will be added to the School account.)
14. These conditions are subject to alteration from time to time by the School. Any such alteration shall be notified in writing to parents. Continuing enrolment of a student at the School following receipt of such notice shall be deemed to constitute acceptance of the revised conditions.
15. Where more than one person has applied for enrolment of a student the liability of each hereunder shall be joint and several.
16. You must advise the School immediately if there is any change to personal information that you have provided to the School in this application.
