Launceston Grammar Vacation Care Programme

Monday 11 - Friday 22 July 2022

Monday 11 July: First Aid Incursion - St. John Ambulance Australia and slime making

We will be welcoming a staff member from St John Ambulance who will come to conduct an age appropriate First Aid course with the children.

Tuesday 12 July: Art on a Plate

The children's own drawing will be made into their very own melamine dinner plate to become a perfect memory to last a lifetime.

Please note: The cost to the plate will $15.00 per plate, the plate size is 25cm. This is an optional activity, other activities will be offered.

Please indicate on the booking form below if your child would like to participate.

Wednesday 13 July: Hot Chocolate in a Jar

The children will get the chance to make up a jar with hot chocolate mix inside, layered with marshmallows and choc chips, along with decorating your own mug to drink the hot chocolate from.

Thursday 14 July: NAIDOC

Celebrate the history and culture of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islanders through a whole group art project, cooking and some crafts throughout the day.

Friday 15 July: School's Tree Day

Enjoy the day making native plant seed bombs. We will also paint a paper pot and plant a tree to take home. Celebrate nature and come wearing green colours for the day!

Monday 18 July: Calico Bags and Cooking

Let your imagination go wild and design your own calico bag along with making choc chip cookies.

Tuesday 19 July: Mexican Day

Spend the day having fun with a variety of activities and crafts. We will also have a special lunch of tacos/burritos.

Please advise staff of any dietary requirements.

Wednesday 20 July: Art and Craft (Clay-based)

Enjoy some time creating your own gorgeous Dragon Eyes using clay or designing your own unique creation.

Thursday 21 July: DIY No Sew Cushions

Choose from some different designs and textured fabrics to make your own comfy cushions with the option to make other crafts time permitting.

Friday 22 July: Movie/PJ Day

Stay warm and wear pyjamas for the day. Bring along your favourite Teddy Bear and pillow, spend the day watching movies and playing board games.
